R. B. LOTHIAN DEAD

Passed Away at His Home in Yale Early Last Saturday Morning

It is with the deepest sorrow for the family of loved ones who are left, that we, this week, are obliged to chronicle the death of Robert Bruce Lothian, whose serious sickness was mentioned in last week's paper. Death came to him peacefully at last, after a hard struggle of several days' duration, on

R. BRUCE LOTHIAN

Saturday about one o'clock a. m., November 20, 1915.

Bruce was born in Emmett township, December 19, 1885, and would have been 30 years of age next month. When about three years of age his parents moved to Yale, and with the exception of a year at Alma College, he has lived his life in his home city.

In June, 1908, he was married to Eva Richardson, and two children were born to them, Robert, five, and Margaret, one year old.

While J. C. Holden was in the clothing business, Bruce clerked for him about three years, when he and Charles Palmer bought out the stock and the firm name became Lothian & Palmer, both members being young men of push and ability.

Bruce will be greatly missed, not only as a kind and loving husband and father and an affectionate son and brother, but in the daily walk of the business men, ever taking an active interest in the public affairs of our little city. He was alderman from the second ward at the time of his death.

The funeral services were held from the home at 1:30 p. m. on Monday, Rev. Bradfield conducting the services, assisted by Rev. Geach and the service of the Masonic Order also being given. Mrs. Clyde Cochran sang two beautiful songs.

The abundance of beautiful flowers brought their own message of love and peace and comfort to the stricken hearts.

Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery, services being conducted there by the Masons, nearly one hundred of whom were in attendance. Besides the widow and children he leaves to mourn a mother and one sister, Elizabeth.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the many unceasing and untiring efforts put forth so willingly by our friends and neighbors to aid us during the sickness and after the death of our loved one, and for the wonderfully beautiful floral offerings, we gratefully acknowledge our debt and in this way desire to thank each one.

Mrs. R. Bruce Lothian
Elizabeth Lothian

Those from out of town attending the funeral were Harrison Grinnell, Bay City; Mrs. Wm. Brown, Richmond; Mrs. Richard Elliot and son Norman, Detroit; Peter Grace, Ypsilanti; Robt. Thompson, Mr. Marks and Charles Richardson, Detroit; Hugh Rose, Port Huron.

Resolution of Condolence

WHEREAS, in the order of an unerring Providence, Robert Bruce Lothian, one of the alderman of our city, and chairman of the committee on finance, was called early Saturday morning, Nov. 20th to exchange the toil and suffering of this life for the unending rest of the future, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we as members of City Council express our sympathy to sorrowing members of the family in their sad bereavement, knowing that his love for his home and family were of an exceptional character.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, on Saturday last, Nov. 20th, 1915, Robert Bruce Lothian, who for many years was permitted to walk in the light of Masonry and was a Past Master of Brockway Lodge No. 315, was called to his reward, leaving behind him a wife, two children, a mother and sister to mourn his departure. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, as members of Brockway Lodge No. 315, F. & A. M., express our sorrow and heartfelt regret for the bereavement, notwithstanding the fact that we have learned to bow in humble submission when death knocks at the door of the Lodge and removes a Brother from our midst. Be it further

RESOLVED, That we extend our sympathy to the family in their sad bereavement, and that we cause a copy of these resolutions to be spread upon the permanent records of the Lodge, a copy to be furnished to the family of our deceased Brother, and one to be made for publication. Be it further

RESOLVED, That our Charter and Great Lights be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.
Signed,

GRADE NOTES

Lucile Menerey is absent from school on account of the mumps.
The third grade has the flag this week.

The third grade entertains the second grade Wednesday afternoon.

Alice Lunan has returned to school after being absent for two weeks.

Rodger DeLombard and Bernice Flynn entered the fifth grade this week.

A program was given by the seventh and eighth grades Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Wood—"I'ma, I want you to get to work."

Ima—"I'm not working."

Miss Wood—"That's why I want you to get to work."

The sixth grade is debating against the seventh and eighth grades. The question is, "Whether Turkey is better than Goose."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Muir—"My head feels as if something is rattling around in it."

Lawson—"That shows there isn't much in it."

Muir—"Does your head rattle?"

Lawson—"No."

Muir—"Do you know why?"

Lawson—"No."

Muir—"Because there's nothing in it."

Nina thinks it is rather hard on the Freshmen to keep putting their names in the High School Tattler, but of course the seniors don't mind.

Mr. Reynolds' rhetorical division will give their first program Wednesday afternoon.

Everyone is thankful for the two days' vacation this week.

Seen in an English literature paper:

"How far that little candle throws its beam, so shines a good deed in a naughty world."

The German II class completed "Immense" with an examination on Wednesday.

Wanted—A course in domestic science for the boys of Yale High School, who cannot play football or baseball.

—A Junior.

The Seniors are working hard on their play, expecting to give it about the middle of December. The characters are taking their parts well.

Bernice—in geometry class, after Leon had finished demonstrating a theorem—"Mr. Reynolds, he didn't give all of his hypotenuse."

The ancient history class are comparing the Spartan and Athenian systems of education, and are more than ever satisfied with our own system.

Gleaners' State Federation.

The reception committee for the Gleaners' State Federation, at Port Huron, December 1 and 2, held a meeting at the Union Hotel and arranged for meeting the delegates who would come from distant parts of the state on Wednesday, Dec. 1st. E. W. Lewis of Lamb, Otto Kingsbury of High Banks, B. W. Cronkite, of Defiance, will be at the Tunnel Station. Thos. Harding of Port Leaf, Jos. Waggoner, of Marine and Elmer Jones of Adair, will be at the Rapid Railway Station.

A Lambert of Gardendale, C. C. Mitchell and H. W. Burch of Blaine, will be at Pine Grove Ave. Station. Frank Sturges of South Park will be at the Court Street Station.

Frank Ormsby of South Park, chairman of the reception committee, will make the Union Hotel his headquarters, from which place he will direct the committee. As fast as the delegates and visiting Gleaners arrive in the city, rooms will be provided for them. Mrs. James Rankin, of Port Huron is chairlady of the women's section of the reception committee and will see that the lady delegates are properly cared for while in the city.

Dr. George Dittwig, Washington, D. C., will be present and speak Wednesday afternoon on bean and potato blight. The Gleaners are very fortunate in being able to get Dr. Dittwig, as he has wide experience as Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry. He will give the Gleaners of Michigan a very instructive and interesting talk.

One may get something of an idea as to the quality of work which will be presented at the convention, from the fact that there are two hundred (200) persons in the teams. All the new theatrical work will be conferred. Besides the degrees there is the unwritten memorial ceremony to be given by China Arbor. These teams, together with a large class of candidates for the degrees will be given a banquet at the close of the Saturday night session.

Splendid increase at the Sabbath services.

Circle No. 1 has secured Dr. M. S. Klee, pastor of the North Woodward Ave. M. E. church for an address on Friday evening, Dec. 3rd. They are fortunate in securing him. His eloquence and humor make him a very popular speaker. Don't miss it.

Ladies of the church meet with Mrs. Geach Wednesday, December 1, at 2:30. Come early.

The H. O. B. C. got the box off to the Deaconess Home Monday. They appreciate the kindness of the people in assisting to fill it.

Union Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock, Rev. Charles being the speaker.

May your Thanksgiving be cheery and reverent.

Hearty thankfulness is due now from all the American people, for surely we never had greater reason for it.

In everything give thanks.

Stop, look, listen! Who? Dr. Rice. Where? Central Hall. When? Friday evening, Dec. 3. How much? Only 25c, and you won't begrudge it.

James French is the new pupil in Miss Holden's class.

Most Popular Lecture.

Rev. M. S. Rice D. D., of Detroit, will deliver one of his most popular lectures on Friday evening, Dec. 3rd, in Central Hall. Subject of lecture:—"The Devil in the Hindmost."

The citizens of Yale and vicinity will miss one of the greatest treats in the history of the city if they fail to attend this lecture.

Dr. Rice is brim full of humor and is one of the great platform men of our country.

Reserve seats can be secured at Hennessey's drug store Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Tickets, adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

NOTICE

Anyone having articles of clothing which they cannot use themselves, but which some one else might, shoes or household utensils, kindly send to the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon next week for the Rummage sale, or phone Mrs. J. A. Menzies, who will see that they are gathered up.

Anybody having cattle or hogs to sell, fetch them in or call T. J. Minnie. Will ship Thursday, Dec. 2.
